Dear Harold,

Jan. 7, 1999

Enclosed is a copy of the Prologue and Chapter 1 of a new book on the FBI crime lab I picked up at the library last week. It is dedicated to Fred Whitehurst, among others. I have highlighted a few passages which seem so similar to your experience. The main examples they use are from recent cases such as the Unabomber. The authors appear to make a well-reasoned and well-supported case that serious reform is needed.

We had a terrible ice storm down here last weekend. We were without power for 24 hours, but many others were out for 2-3 days. Hope you have been able to escape some of this bad weather.

Take care and say hello to Lillian from Hank-Irene and me.

Best,

Gerry
